THE MANAGER DARRELL CLARKE

Good afternoon and welcome back to the Completely-Suzuki Stadium for some more Sky Bet League One action. I'd like to welcome the fans, staff and players from my former club Port Vale to Cheltenham for today's game.

I was really pleased with Tuesday's win over Blackpool. It was a really good performance both defensively and on the front foot. The boys were superb and it is another great response after the run of defeats that preceded that Cambridge win.

Elliot Bonds on his 100th appearance for the club was brilliant alongside Tom Pett and Liam Kinsella in that midfield trio. We wanted to exert pressure onto their back three with our midfielders so they didn't get plenty of time on the ball where they can hurt you. Those three were outstanding along with the rest of the team.

Today there's an opportunity to make it three wins from three in the past week which is dreamworld for the situation we are in. To have got six points out of six is an unbelievable feat in itself but we have to reset, clear our minds and focus on our consistent methods of working to constantly improve and hopefully that's enough for another three points.

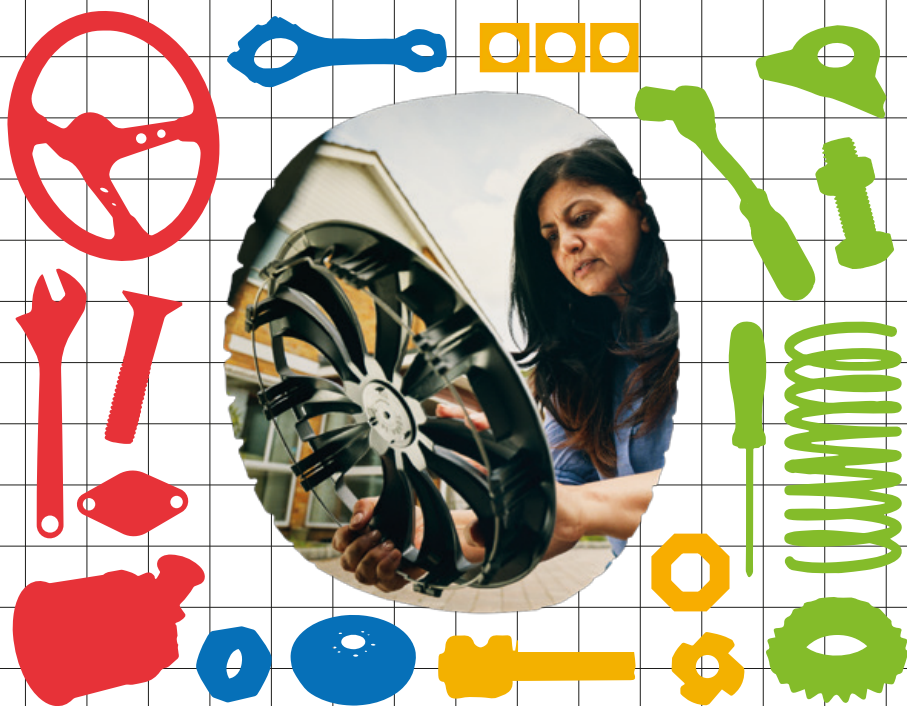

Thank you for your fantastic continued support of the team and I hope you enjoy the game.

CHAIRMAN DAVID BLOXHAM

A very warm welcome to the fans, directors, players and staff of Port Vale for this afternoon's League One fixture. I hope that all our visitors had a good journey down from Staffordshire.

Looking at the current League One table this afternoon's fixture is an important game for both clubs as we both fight to climb out of our respective current relegation positions and up the league table. The game also carries some significance in terms of the club's respective management teams. For us Darrell is facing his former club for whom I know he holds great respect. The Valiants have recently had a change of manager and this afternoon's fixture will mark the first game for Darren Moore in the away dug-out.

These are the first programme notes that I have written since the end of January and the closure of the transfer window. I would like to think that the business undertaken throughout January but particularly towards the very end of the transfer window has been successful with the addition of both experienced and younger players who have strengthened our playing squad. I should like to welcome all those players who have joined the club recently and thank those that have left for their efforts for our club.

As we enter the final third of the current league season I have been reflecting back on our season to date. We all know that the first 11 games represented an extremely difficult period for the club during which we failed to score any goals and gain just one league point. That run of games culminated in a change of manager and Darrell's appointment since which time we have experienced a huge improvement in both form and results. It is fair to say that very few pundits gave us much hope of survival in League One following the first third of the season but the results since that time have given us a fighting chance of retaining that status as we approach the last 16 games. We should be under no illusions and make no mistake that we still face a huge challenge. I do however believe that with the points we have managed to gain over recent months and the momentum we are building that we do have a realistic chance of survival.

It is more important than ever that as a club we stick together and keep fighting until the very end of the season. Every goal scored and point gained will be vital for us. We must continue, across the club, from the boardroom, to the management team, the players and most importantly to you the fans to support the manager and the boys to the very best of our ability at every game home and away as I do genuinely believe that what seemed highly unlikely before Darrell's appointment as first team manager is now possible and achievable if we all keep working hard.

I thank you most sincerely for your fantastic support across what as to date been a difficult season and encourage you to maintain that support through to the end of April and indeed beyond.

Enjoy the game.

David

“The gaffer has come in now, changed it all up and turned it around completely to put us right in the mix”

LIAM KINSELLA

Another familiar face to manager Darrell Clarke in Liam Kinsella has joined the Robins' ranks with a new challenge in sight.

The midfielder signed for Cheltenham Town during the January transfer window and was the club's second addition of the month.

"I'm absolutely buzzing," said Kinsella after joining.

"I know the gaffer from our time at Walsall together and I'm just excited to get going now and play for this football club."

Kinsella's time at Walsall spanned 19 years after he joined the academy in 2004 during which time Clarke managed the club between 2019-21.

"From working with him at Walsall, he's a fantastic manager and one of the best I've worked under," Liam continued.

"As soon as I knew there was interest from the gaffer and Cheltenham Town, it always interested me to work under him again and thankfully we got it over the line."

Nevertheless the 27-year-old's time at Walsall will always hold a special place in his heart.

"I had a fantastic time and wouldn't change it for anything. You learn a lot in 19 years. It was a fantastic time in my career and I'm ready to start a new chapter now."

There was a stop at League Two side Swindon Town earlier in the season and although brief, Liam remains thankful for those who contributed to his time at the club.

"I can't thank Swindon enough for giving me opportunities to play for their football club. The fans, staff and all the football players I worked with at Swindon Town was a fantastic six months I was there."

The desire to play "at the highest level" brought him north to Cheltenham and he has been a distant admirer of the club's change in fortunes since Clarke was appointed in September.

"I saw the start of the season and it didn't go to plan as many of the fans would've wanted but the gaffer has come in now, changed it all up and turned it around completely to put us right in the mix to get out of this trouble."

The Irishman fits the combative midfielder mould that Clarke loves and he believes his traits set him up perfectly for a successful spell with the Robins in their tough battle to survive.

"I like to say I work as hard as I possibly can, break it up in the middle to stop counter attacks and lend it to the forward players to do the magic.

"You want to be as consistent as possible and I try every game I go out there to be as consistent as I can. You get the bad days at the office but as long as you're working your socks off the consistency usually follows."

Fighting alongside Cheltenham Town in a bid to avoid the drop from League One are Port Vale and they are hoping the arrival of Darren Moore gives them the boost they need.

The Valiants are in their second season back in the third tier of English football after a five year hiatus in League Two which was ended by the successful 2021/22 play-off campaign under now Cheltenham boss Darrell Clarke. The Staffordshire based club in fact hold the record of the most seasons in the Football League without reaching the top tier and were once managed by Sir Stanley Matthews too.

However, back to the present, and a steady decline under ex-manager Andy Crosby has seen them slip into the relegation zone. A strong start to the campaign saw them sit in fifth after nine games but a run of six games without a win stretching back to a 3-0 success over Blackpool in December means they now occupy 21st spot, a point above the Robins and a point from safety.

Ben Garrity

Crosby has since been replaced by Moore, the man who guided Sheffield Wednesday to play-off success from the very same league in May of last year.

The squad includes two of the top goalscoring midfielders in the league with Ben Garrity having nine to his name and summer signing from AFC Wimbledon Ethan Chislett having six of his own as well as his eight assists. But the former has been sidelined by injury since the beginning of 2024 and Chislett's importance to the team has grown further after Tottenham Hotspur loanee Alfie Devine moved onto pastures new at Plymouth Argyle.

Elsewhere, goals have been hard to come by for the side with no forward having more than James Wilson's tally of three in the league but the duo of Gavin Massey and Tom Sang down the right hand side have provided a source of creativity for the out of form Valiants.

They arrive at the Completely-Suzuki Stadium looking to build on the 0-0 draw they earnt in January of last year and avenge the 2-1 loss they suffered to the Robins at Vale Park earlier this term.

LAST TIME WE MET

PORT VALE 1-2 ROBINS

The Robins picked up their first away win of the 2023/24 campaign with a comeback 2-1 win over today's opponents in Sky Bet League One action when the two met earlier this season.

Goals either side of half-time from an unlikely source in captain Sean Long inspired Town to fight from behind at Vale Park in manager Darrell Clarke's return to his former club.

The deadlock was broken in the 32nd minute after a looping corner from the hosts was headed down by Nathan Smith to the feet of former Vale loanee Alfie Devine, who acrobatically hooked the ball past the helpless Luke Southwood from close range.

With half-time beckoning, the Robins hauled themselves level as a trademark long throw from the left hand side fell at the feet of Long who ushered the ball onto his right foot before striking it past Conor Ripley.

The turnaround was nearly complete just seconds after the break as an inventive kick-off resulted in midfielder Elliot Bonds rattling the crossbar with a right footed strike from distance.

However, Town didn't have to wait long to take the lead as a scramble in the Vale box lead to the ball falling at the feet of Long again and this time his effort took a wicked deflection to loop over Ripley and spark a celebratory huddle in the middle of the pitch.

As time ticked away, it was relatively smooth going for the Robins with Southwood clawing Jesse Debrah's goal bound header off the line and holding tightly onto another Vale header in the dying embers.

Referee Matt Corlett's final whistle ensured the Robins moved off the foot of the table and earned their second win in a week after the previous Saturday's success against Cambridge United.

Her Game Too CIC is a gender equality organisation that works hard to promote and create an inclusive and safe within football, whilst celebrating the success of the community that it brings together.

The organisation which grew from football fans, supporting football fans, has continued to develop its aims and objectives since being created in May 2021. We now aim to support not only football fans of men's and women's teams, coaches, players, journalists and those who work in the industry more broadly.

One of Her Game Too's taglines is 'Football is a game for all,' something that we are very proud to promote and ensure we foster throughout all our decisions. Our team of valued ambassadors and advisors come from a variety of backgrounds and a range of demographics, encompassing the wonderful diversity of the country, and different people all at different stages of their footballing journey.

Celebrating pride within football is so important as it recognises the diverse range of people who can fall in love with football. We are very lucky to have a number of people part of the LGBTQ+ community within our team who we like to think as a campaign, we support and can use fixtures such as these to celebrate. We would like to recognise that football on a whole has a way to go before members of the community may feel entirely represented, which emphasises the importance of fixtures such as these.

Alongside our team members who are part of the LGBTQ+ community, we ensure that we offer regular training to everybody to ensure that we are moving forward and fostering an inclusive environment through the work we are doing.

Her Game Too ambassadors recently received training from Stonegate exploring correct use of terminology within LGBTQ+ and how we can continue to support those who may need it.

If you would like anymore information of what has been mentioned, or would like to get involved with Her Game Too - please contact our Cheltenham Town ambassador, Kelly.

At Mira, we believe we have a real opportunity to have a positive impact on our planet, our communities and our people.

Through our charity work, volunteering work and engaging with our local partners, we actively encourage our associates to contribute toward a better world.

Together we strive to achieve a positive impact beyond our immediate sphere including creating a work environment where everybody can be themselves, celebrate diversity and embrace each other's differences.

GETTING TO KNOW SOPHI BARBS, PORT VALE AMBASSADOR.

What made you want to be a part of Her Game Too?

I had seen HGT on Twitter and had followed it from the beginning, so it wasn't something I even needed to think about when I was asked to be an Ambassador by our Supporters Club. I've been going to the football since I was three years old and have played throughout school/college and got back into it last year, so encouraging females in and at the football is something I've always been passionate about.

Fun fact about yourself!

I was gifted a signed Port Vale flag that came around the world with me on deployment with the Royal Navy, getting photos at places like the Kennedy Space Center, Statue of Liberty, Canada and sporting events in America.

One to watch - who's the Portsmouth player Cheltenham should watch out for?

Super Connor Ripley in goal!

Score predictions?

Hoping the new Darren Moore's black and white army can scrape a 2-1 win!
