THE MANAGER DARRELL CLARKE

Good afternoon Robins fans and welcome back to the Completely-Suzuki Stadium for a crucial week starting with the visit of Lincoln City today. I'd like to welcome all the players, staff and fans from Lincoln to Cheltenham.

We knew that Tuesday night against Burton was a must win and to leave after 90 minutes with a fighting chance and it in our own hands was superb. The manner in which we conceded was disappointing but, in what we knew we was going to be a physically challenging game, the response and character from the boys was great.

I was frustrated at half-time but again it wasn't for a lack of effort from the team. Thankfully with a player like Matty Taylor in the side he can provide the quality you need. It gave the group the confidence they needed to go on and claim all three points thanks to Curtis Davies.

But we can't get carried away. A lot of work remains, and we have to keep fighting despite losing more players to injury. The boys were really grateful for the support Tuesday, and we need you all for the remaining games. Let's try and get the stadium bouncing for today and next Tuesday and I'll do everything I can to get my players to put on a performance.

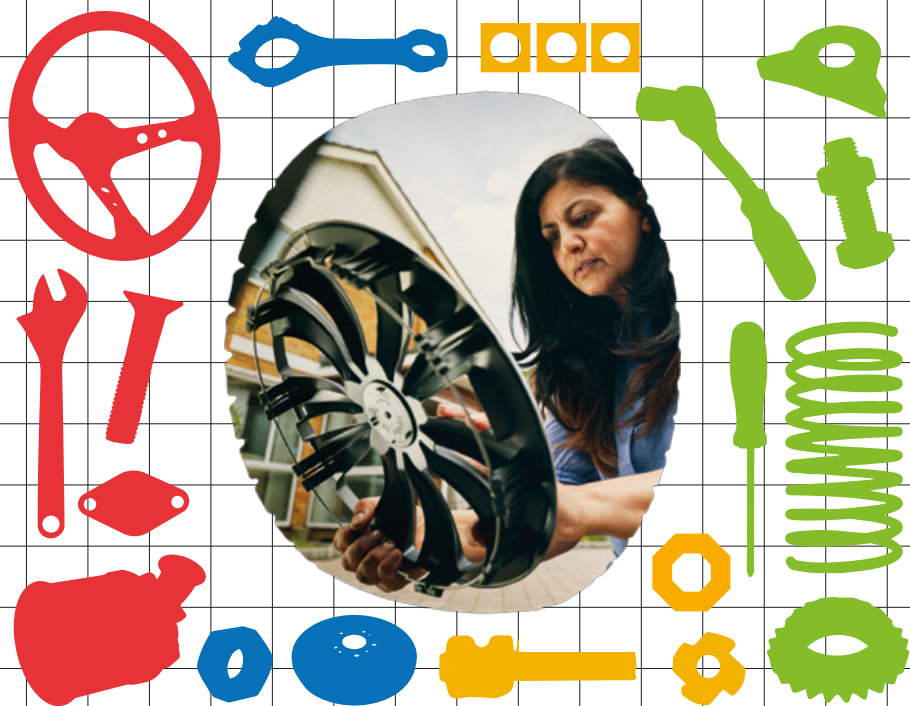

Thank for your terrific support and I hope you enjoy today's game.

CHAIRMAN DAVID BLOXHAM

A very warm welcome to the Completely-Suzuki Stadium for today's game. I'd also like to welcome the fans, directors, players and staff of Lincoln City for this afternoon's League One fixture.

This season has undoubtedly been a massive challenge in terms of our desire to remain in League One. Prior to Darrell's first game in charge, we had a record of having played 11 games without scoring and accumulated only one point from our 0-0 draw away at Portsmouth. When the board spoke to Darrell and subsequently appointed him, his brief was to try and keep the club in League One which was obviously going to be a difficult task. If at that time I had been given the offer of still being realistically in the fight for survival as we entered the final three games of the season, I would have taken that offer without hesitation.

April has been a difficult month both in terms of the number of fixtures we have played and the pressure that has put on the players and staff with games coming thick and fast. Injuries have mounted and fatigue inevitably increases. Notwithstanding all the odds Darrell and his staff have remained positive throughout and all the players to a man have not only given maximum effort but have also remained extremely positive in terms of what they expect to achieve.

On Tuesday night we travelled to Burton Albion who are in the relegation fight with us. It really was a must win game for both teams. Although we went behind in stoppage time at the end of the first half the spirit and determination of Darrell and his team shone through in the second half and goals from Matty Taylor and Curtis Davis turned the game around to a vital win in our favour. After the game I briefly saw Darrell and some of the players who had all clearly expended every ounce of effort in achieving the required result. I should like to offer a personal note of thanks to all of them for that effort and indeed the travelling fans whose vocal support was invaluable.

We now have three remaining games to complete our seasons' fixtures with two at home (including today's game) and one away on the final day of the season. Each of those games will be a mini cup final as every goal scored and point won will be vital. Make no mistake that we will be facing three tough games against teams sitting within the top section of the League.

With regards to our home fixtures, I know that there has been some debate about the allocation of away tickets for some of our recent games (in particular the games against Exeter and Bristol Rovers). I do appreciate that by allowing away supporters to occupy block 7 and 8 of the Colin Farmer stand it does increase the visiting team's vocal support and limits the availability of facilities to home supporters occupying the rest of the stand. The only reason that the club agrees to the allocation of those tickets is purely financial. It is a difficult decision to make but the income generated by selling those tickets is not inconsiderable. It is well known that the club's budget is modest and that we must survive within our financial resources. Maximizing gate receipts is something that we must do to sustain our club and to try and ensure that we are in as good a financial position as we can be moving forward.

There will however be no allocation of additional tickets to either of the away teams in the Colin Farmer stand for our final two home fixtures. This will provide home fans with an opportunity to fill the Colin Farmer stand and provide not only the levels of vocal support that will be needed but also ensure that the club is able to maximise revenue by filling the CF stand in its entirety.

Today's game and the subsequent game against Peterborough United on Tuesday night are crucial home matches and you the fans will have a massive part to play by being our "12th man". I urge you all to turn up in numbers to both our home games and our away fixture at Stevenage to support the team as vocally as you possibly can. In every game since Darrell has been appointed I have felt a mixture of hope, confidence and pride as we have played catch-up from our poor start. The season has been an anxious battle for League One survival. As we approach the last three games we are very much in that battle.

Please, please continue to support the team to the fullest extent possible at both our home and remaining away fixture. Your support combined with the incredible efforts of Darrell and his staff and all the players can make the "great escape" happen.

COYR,
David

STAR PLAYER
Lasse Sorensen

2022/23
11th, League One

Surging up the League One table are Michael Skubala's Lincoln City – a club dreaming of a play-off finish to achieve their Championship dream.

Only two teams sit above Lincoln in the table since the turn of the year and those are the top two in the division in Portsmouth and Derby County. A rise from 13th on New Year's Day to their current home of seventh can be put solely down to a run of one defeat in 18 featuring 10 wins in 12 as well as a superb return of 16 goals in three games. Skubala stepped into the shoes of former manager Mark Kennedy in November and has built a team who love to play attacking football on the front foot and the Imps are reaping those benefits.

This season - regardless of their play-off dream being realised or not - can be viewed as another milestone in the club's transformative rise since Cowley brothers Nicky and Danny led them to the National League title in 2016/17 as well as the FA Cup quarter-finals. There has been no such cup run this time but Premier League opposition, Sheffield United, were defeated on penalties in the League Cup and steps towards avenging their 2020/21 play-off final defeat are being made after 17th and 11th place finishes in the last two campaigns.

The Imps also have happy memories against today's opponents. An unbeaten run against the Robins stretches back to 2017 with a 2-0 win coming earlier in the season. At the heart of that victory was right wing-back Lasse Sorensen, who netted twice. He has two further league goals to his name to go alongside eight assists.

With the Dane offering a threat from one wing, Reeco Hackett matches him on the left flank - the number seven has seven goals to his name. Also, in amongst the goals has been midfielder Daniel Mandriou with eight of his own and his tally can only be bettered by January loan addition Joe Taylor with nine in 17 appearances.

The Lincolnshire side have made further use of the Premier League loan market in this campaign with Lukas Jensen arriving from Burnley to be their number one goalkeeper and with Sean Roughan, Alex Mitchell and Paudie O'Connor in front of him, they have provided a solid platform for Skubala to build his team from.

#HER GAME TOO IT'S A GAME #HERGAMETOO

In 2021, a group of passionate women fans felt mobilised to start a campaign called #HerGameToo.

The campaign is committed to fostering an ethos in football where women are welcomed and respected equally and can be confident sharing their opinions about football online and in person without fear of sexist abuse. This afternoon, we introduce two new advocates to the cause.

Cheltenham Town's Her Game Too ambassador, Kelly-Marie Selby, tells us: "Growing up loving football, it was so sad that not only did girls not have the opportunities that boys had to further their abilities, but trying to voice my opinion was almost impossible. As soon as I tried to express any views I was told I was a girl, I didn't know anything about football, and I should just concentrate on make up and being a girl.

"The younger me shied away from fighting, but as I got older, I knew this wasn't right and that I should be allowed to join in on conversations about football. So when the opportunity came to become an ambassador of an amazing campaign to empower women to have a voice without fear, I put myself forward. Over the past few months I've been ambassador for Her Game Too Cheltenham, and this has now grown with three incredible ladies coming on board - Mary Stone, Taz Scoles and Emily Moore.

"Together, we want to help create an environment at The Completely-Suzuki Stadium where women of all ages can feel welcome and safe without fear of sexism and misogyny, knowing there are avenues to report such incidents."

Introducing themselves, Taz explained: "53 years ago the ban of woman playing football was finally lifted, and now we are seeing woman on the big screens influencing the new generation. Her Game Too brings awareness to the struggles woman players and fans may face and how we can eliminate it. I am so excited to work alongside Her Game Too to raise more awareness and inspire the younger generations."

Alongside Taz and Kelly-Marie, Mary reflected on what the campaign is for her: "Her Game Too means being able to go and watch football games wherever I want, whenever I want, without being made uncomfortable. In the short space of time I've been involved with this group, I've connected with so many female football friends, like Kelly and Taz, and sharing our experiences together shows exactly why we're doing what we're doing.

"I'd encourage everyone to find a way to get involved with Her Game Too, it could be through doing something so simple as wearing our badge or taking a more front facing role in tackling sexism in football."
